

Write one or more Traffic Safety words beside each picture.

Signal
Traffic
Stop

Pedestrian
Crossing Guard

Danger Zone
Bus

Sign
Vehicles

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Grade: 2-3

Spelling

TRAFFIC SAFETY RULES

Finish the sentence with a safety word from the box.

zone stop guard crossing bus
sign pedestrian danger

Always stop when you see a

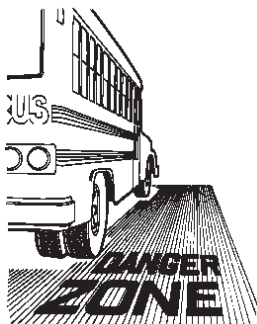

_____.

When you walk on a sidewalk or across the street you are a _____.

Always obey the _____
_____ when they help you
cross the street.

The area around the bus that is very dangerous is the _____
_____.

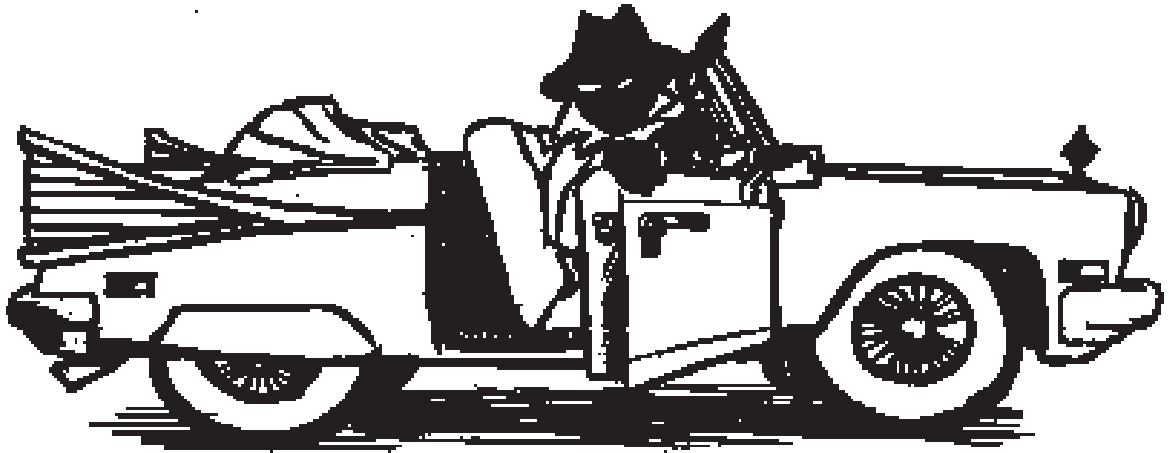

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Look for Otto!

No! Don't go,

with people you don't know!

Write two sentences describing what to do if you are approached by someone you don't know.

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Officer Friendly
reminds us . . .
call 911 in an emergency!

Say the words 911. Write in the numbers on the phone. Color the squares on the phone where 911 would be. Write a sentence that describes an emergency.

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

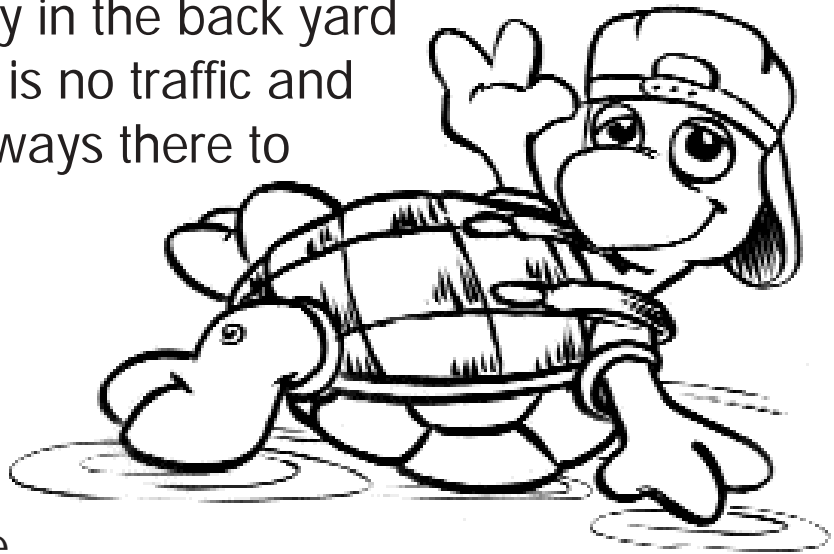

Look for Otto!

Play in a safe place!

It is safe to play in the school yard because there is no traffic and someone is always there to watch you.

It is safe to play in the back yard because there is no traffic and someone is always there to watch you.

Finish the sentence.

It is safe to play on the playground because

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Grade: 2-3

Spelling

Play in the playground, not in the street!

In the blanks below, write the pronouns and nouns you see in the following sentences.

Angel and Adrian play on the playground because it is safe. They also follow the rules on the playground that are given to them by adults.

Nouns: _____

Pronouns: _____

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Look for Otto!

Look front, look back, then ...

Look left,

Look right,

always, all ways, before crossing the street.

Write right under the right hands.

Which hand do you use to write? _____

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Be extra careful on city streets. Walk, don't run. Always cross at an intersection. Push the crosswalk button and wait for the walk signal.

Write the nouns from the paragraph at the top of the page.

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

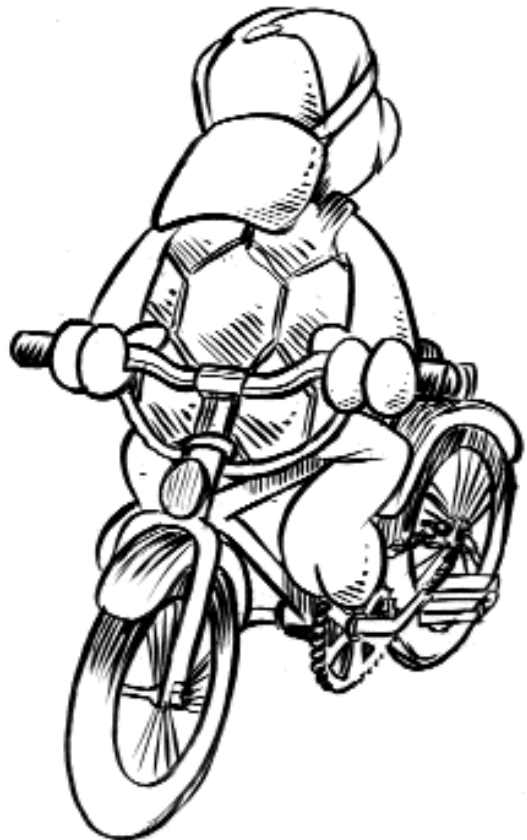

Look for Otto!

Andy looks all ways before crossing the street. He watches for cars and other traffic to be sure the road is clear. When he crosses the street he walks in a straight line and is not distracted.

What is Adrian doing wrong in this picture?

Complete the sentence using the words below.

crossing right safely look left straight

_____ all ways before _____ the street.

Then walk in a _____ line to _____ cross the street.

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Grade: 2-3

Spelling

Stay clear, don't go near the rear of the bus.

Circle the rhyming words. Write two words that rhyme with fear. _____

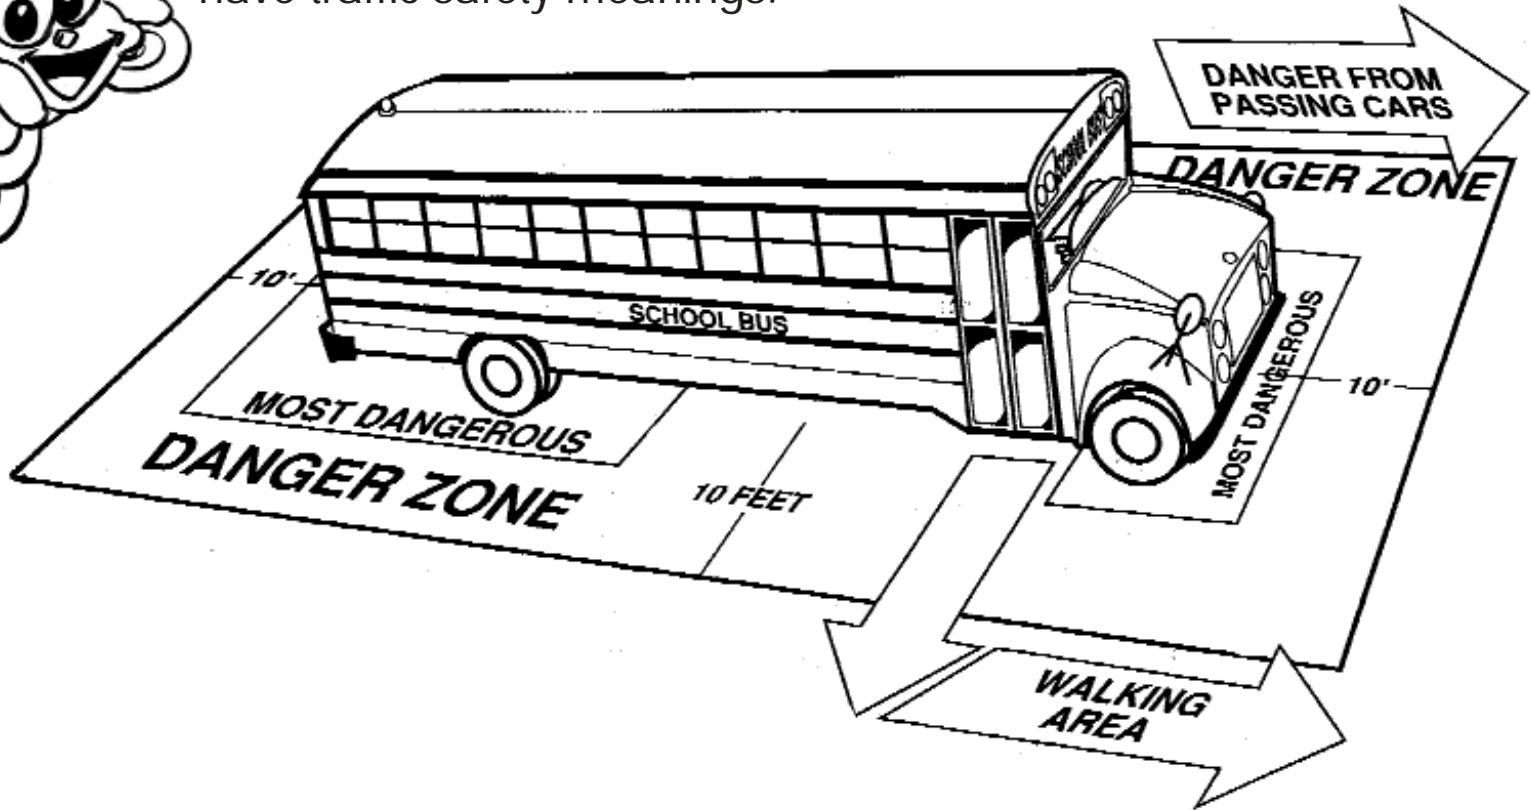

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Look for Otto!

Colors of signs and signals
have traffic safety meanings.

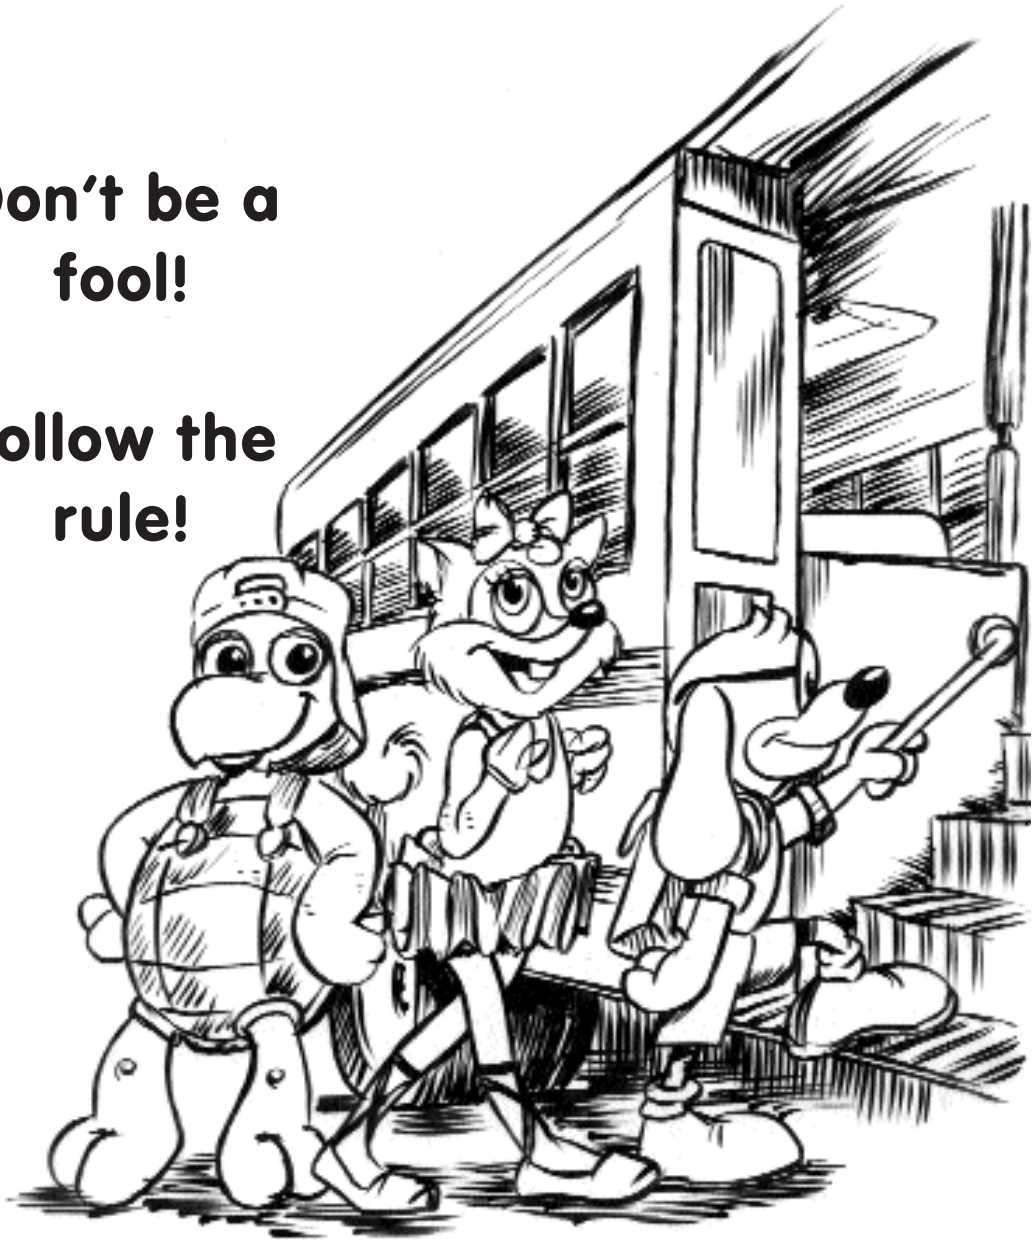

Circle the words with a long A sound.
Color the danger zone yellow.
Color the most dangerous zone red.
Color the walking area green.

Stay in the safe zone!

Don't be a fool!

Follow the rule!

Write a word that rhymes.

Andy _____ Bus _____

Safe _____ Rule _____

Grade: 2-3 Spelling

Coming in December 2001!
Visit your Traffic Safety Pals
at www.aaa.com/publicaffairs

Look for Otto!